RESEARCH STATEMENT

The mission of my work is to conduct rigorous fundamental research to understand cognitive control processes, and to then use this knowledge to tackle applied and clinical questions. I use behavioural methods together with computational modelling to address my research questions.

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

Keele University, Keele, Staffordshire, UK

July 2010 – Present

Reader in Cognitive Psychology (2021–Present; Lecturer 2010–2016; Senior Lecturer 2016–2021). Key roles include:

- Head of School, Psychology (2017–2020)
- University Academic Lead for Research Integrity & Improvement (2019–Present)
- Keele University representative for the UK Reproducibility Network (UKRN) (2019–Present)
- Research Lead for Cognition, Brain, & Behaviour Research Group (2020–Present)
- Programme Lead for MSc Cognition & Cognitive Neuroscience (2020–Present)
- Research Lead for Cognitive & Biological Research Group (2014–2017)
- Programme Lead for MSc Cognitive Psychology (2014–2017)

EDUCATION

Keele University, Keele, Staffordshire, UK,

September 2010 – July 2012

Postgraduate Certificate in Teaching and Learning in Higher Education

Bangor University, Bangor, Gwynedd, UK,

October 2007 – July 2010

PhD Cognitive Psychology — Pass (no corrections)

Bangor University, Bangor, Gwynedd, UK,

October 2006 – September 2007

MSc Psychological Research — With Distinction

Bangor University, Bangor, Gwynedd, UK,

October 2003 – July 2006

BSc Psychology (Hons) — First Class

AWARDS & HONOURS

- Awarded research sabbatical for Autumn semester of 2021/22 academic year.
- Awarded research sabbatical for Autumn semester of 2017/18 academic year (deferred due to taking on Head of School role).
- Keele University Excellence Award (Winner, 2015). This university-wide award is presented in recognition of excellence in teaching and student support. I have been nominated by students for this award every year I have taught at Keele, winning in 2015.
- Keele Student-Led Teaching Awards (Winner, 2015, 2017). This teaching award is driven by student-nominations via the Student Union in "...recognition of teaching excellence". I have been shortlisted for this award in 2014, 2015, and 2017.
- Selected for Keele University's Research Excellence Framework assessment submission (REF2014).
- Awarded research sabbatical for Autumn semester of 2013/14 academic year.

LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT ROLES

University Academic Lead for Research Integrity & Improvement (2019–Present). (Needs updating)

Head of School (2017—2020). As HoS I am responsible for all aspects of research, education, and managerial leadership of the School, ensuring compliance with University and statutory regulations. I directly line-manage approximately 50 staff members (38 academics), and manage a budget of over £5million. I sit on Faculty Executive Group & Leadership committees, the University Leadership Group, and the University Senate. I also sit on the Faculty’s Research Committee, and Academic Promotions Panel. Principal areas of responsibility are:

- Academic Leadership: (i) To provide academic leadership in the management of all research and educational activities within the school; (ii) To generate new income for the School and Faculty; (iii) To lead on the development of a strategic plan at School level (and contribute to the strategic plan at Faculty level), reviewing monitoring and reporting on such strategies; (iv) To ensure the School fulfills the strategic aims of the University; (v) To participate fully in the University’s governance through membership of University Senate.
- Management of Resources: (i) To have responsibility for the direct line management of members of the School; (ii) To effectively manage the School’s budget via strategic annual planning; (iii) To manage staffing resources for the School, including recruitment, performance management, appraisal, and development; (iv) To facilitate the promotion of equality of opportunity and diversity throughout the School.
- Governance: (i) To manage the processes of quality assurance in the School (e.g., the IQA and British Psychological Society accreditation); (ii) To act as School risk manager for governance purposes; (iii) To ensure the implementation of effective health & safety procedures within the School.

Research Lead of the Cognitive & Biological Research Group in the School of Psychology (2014—2017). As part of the School’s REF-2021 preparations, we established three research groups within the school that are a collection of academics and graduate students. The role of the research lead is to coordinate the functioning of the groups. Innovations I introduced were grant-writing workshops, sharing of grant-submission & reviewer feedback, internal peer-review system for grants and empirical papers, internal peer-review on early-stages of project planning to increase academic and non-academic impact, and mentoring of early-career staff. I also assisted convening an internal quality audit (i.e., REF-2021 preparation) of paper submissions across the school.

UNIVERSITY
SERVICE

School Athena Swan committee member (2017–Present); Programme director for MSc Cognitive Psychology (2014–2017); Research Excellence Framework (REF) reading committee (2014, 2017–Present); PhD school studentship competition selection committee (2014–present); University Ethical Review Panel member (2012–2017); School of Psychology Ethics Committee member (2014–2017); Year 2 Tutor (2014–2016); Curriculum Review Committee (2016); Level one research participation time (RPT) co-ordinator (2012–2017); Level two research experience scheme co-ordinator (2012–2016); PhD progression committee member for Tom Shephard (Keele University, 2012), Hayley Gilman (Keele University, 2014), Alice Martini (Keele University, 2016), and Kimberley Dundas (Keele University, 2019); peer-reviewer for large grant applications for the Research Institute of Social Sciences and Faculty of Natural Sciences at Keele University (2010–Present).

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Introduction to Head of Department, Leadership Foundation UK (2017). This two-day course is designed specifically for new heads of school covering the contemporary contexts and challenges of being a head of department. Topics included were (i) Exploring the nature of change and discussing models for implementing change projects; (ii) Managing difficult conversations; (iii) Reviewing conflict using the Thomas Kilman conflict model tool; (iv) Action learning sets; and (v) Diagnostics on management and leadership style.

Leadership Training at Keele (2017/18). Key service leaders in the University schedule a series of events, aimed at leaders, on core features and practices in leadership at Keele. The relevant events include: (i) Staff performance review training; (ii) Equality & diversity inclusive leadership; (iii) Higher education finance; (iv) Keele University governance; and (v) Human resources survival kit for managers.

Introduction to the Role of the Viva Chair for Keele University PhD Examinations (2019). This course explains the roles and responsibilities of the independent chair of a postgraduate research viva at Keele enabling me to serve as independent chair at Keele University PhD vivas.

Recruitment & Selection Training (2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019). This course provides the skills and procedural information for managers at all levels with responsibility for recruiting and selecting employees at Keele University. Successful completion enabled me to be part of a recruitment panel for new academic staff for the department (and across the University, if required).

Information Security Awareness Training (2017, 2018). This online course provides information about security of information within University systems, including data protection and GDPR.

Completion of the Teaching and Learning in Higher Education programme (2012). This one-year MSc-level programme is nationally accredited, and provides new teachers in higher education with skills, knowledge, and a framework for continued critical engagement with the business of teaching in higher education. Assessment consisted of submitting a 12,000 word portfolio containing evidence of critical reflection of teaching practice, effective module development, effective development of assessment protocols, and a general commitment to excellence in teaching. A copy of my portfolio is available upon request.

Research Supervision Training (2012). This 12-session programme equipped attendees with necessary skills to effectively supervise doctoral students. Topics included enhancing effectiveness of supervision meetings, professional development of student, managing student setbacks, and a general introduction to the PGR ethos at Keele. Successful completion of this course now allows me to be a primary supervisor of doctoral students at Keele University.

GRADUATE SUPERVISION

PhD Supervision

- Stuart Moore (2019–Present): Attentional control of visual short-term memory. Primary supervisor.

- Agnieszka Kowalczyk (2015–2018): Cognitive inhibition in task switching: Exploring the n–2 repetition cost. Primary supervisor. Pass, with no corrections.
- Alice Martini (2016–Present): Impulsive–compulsive behaviours in Parkinson’s disease: A behavioural, neuroimaging, and neurophysiological investigation. Secondary supervisor (primary supervisor—Professor Nicky Edelstyn).
- Nick Garnett (2015–2020). Tertiary supervisor, statistical support (primary supervisor—Dr Yvonne Skipper)

MSc Research Supervision

- Natalie Keel (2020/21)—MSc Dissertation, Keele University
- Paula Kedra (2018/19)—MSc Research Apprentice, Keele University
- Saule Sauciunaite (2018/19)—MSc Research Apprentice, Keele University
- Alison Walker (2017/18)—MSc Dissertation, Keele University
- Jordan Cooper (2016/17)—MSc Dissertation, Keele University
- Sarah Doyle (2016/17)—MSc Dissertation, Keele University
- Elizabeth Hunter (2016/18)—MSc Dissertation (part time), Keele University
- Dominic Bromley (2016/7)—MSc Research Apprentice, Keele University
- Chloe Waterman (2016/7)—MSc Research Apprentice, Keele University
- Charlotte Cooper (2012/13)—MSc Dissertation (co-supervisor), Keele University
- Natalie Deakin (2012/3)—MSc Independent Research Topic, Keele University
- Joshua Bould (2011/2)—MSc Dissertation, Keele University
- Justine Carrine (2011/12)—MSc Research Apprentice, Keele University
- Emma Spratley (2010/11)—MSc Research Apprentice, Keele University
- Bethan Mead (2008)—co-supervision of MSc Dissertation, Bangor University
